

Dover graduate wins scholarship

Carol Dummermuth, a May graduate of Dover High, has been awarded a $1,000-per-year academic scholarship from the College of Wooster.

Dummermuth, the daughter of Donald and Joyce Dummermuth of 1300 Crater Ave., was one of 36 recipients who won scholarships through competitive examinations. The awards range in value from $1,000 to $6,500.

DUMMERMUTH

Dummermuth plans to attend Wooster in the fall, majoring in math education.