

HEIDI DENISON AND CINDY

GAIL BURRIER AND SANDY

STEVE DEEMS AND MAJOR

Three qualify for state fair dog judging

Steve Deems, Heidi Denison and Gail Burrier qualified for trips to the Ohio State Fair Saturday after winning their divisions at the 4-H dog judging at the Tuscarawas County fairgrounds.

Nineteen 4-H members participated in the event, and were assisted by Sue Henriksen and Dave and Linda Burrier.

Deems of RD 4, New Philadelphia, is a member of the Bow Wow club. He won the novice A division.

Denison, who won the sub-novice B division, is a member of the Goalseekers and lives at 206 James st., Dover.

Burrier, a resident of Port Washington, won the sub-novice A division and took second in the sub-novice B division. She is a member of the Happy Homesteaders.

Libby Martin and Arvilla Taylor of the Bow Wows took third and fourth, respectively, in the sub-novice B division. Both girls are from New Philadelphia.

Following Burrier in sub-novice A, in order of finish, were Eddie Rufener of the Country Bumpkins, RD 1, Strasburg; Tim Jones of the Fameseekers, 504 Riverview dr., New Philadelphia; Debbie Brown of the Bow Wows, 224 8th st. NW, New Philadelphia; Laura Moore of the Fameseekers, RD 2, Newcomerstown; Robbie Rufener of the Country Bumpkins, RD 1, Strasburg; David Barbee of the Goalseekers, RD 2, Dover; Toni Gorby of the Winfield Happy Hustlers; Kristy Burrier of the Fameseekers, RD 1, Newcomerstown; Denise Mason of the Bow Wows, RD 1, Dover.

Dena Waltz of the Bow Wows, Shel Mar dr., New Philadelphia; Jeff Burrier of the Fameseekers, RD 1, Newcomerstown; Johanna Knudson, and Bob Ogden of the Fameseekers, 415 N. College, Newcomerstown.