

January 24, 2015 12:01AM

Print Page

William A. and Cheryl A. (Warner) Baumgardner Sr. 50th anniversary

William A. and Cheryl A. (Warner) Baumgardner Sr. of New Philadelphia, celebrated their 50th Anniversary with a Private, Home Made Spaghetti Supper.

William A. and Cheryl A. (Warner) Baumgardner Sr. of New Philadelphia, celebrated their 50th Anniversary with a Private, Home Made Spaghetti Supper.

The former Cheryl A. Warner and her husband William, after dating off and on were married on Dec. 19, 1964, at St. United John's Church of Christ in Dover, "till death do us part".

Aug. 5, 1971 we went to the Salt Lake City Temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and had our marriage sealed and our children sealed to us for ALL time and Eternity, by an Ordinance Worker with the Power and Authority from God to do so.

We have three children, William Jr. (Bonnie) of New Phila., Sheryl L. (Rich) Weaver of Dover, and Robert D. (Diane) of Dover; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, with one due in March.

Our marriage, like all others, have had trials and problems, but with the help of Heavenly Father, we have had 50 years of a wonderful marriage.

William is the son of Robert W. Baumgardner Sr., and Marjorie Grace (Ewing) Baumgardner, both deceased.

Cheryl is the daughter of Oliver Warner and Ethel (Beck) Warner, both deceased."

William is retired from Nickle's Bakery, where he worked as Transport Driver. Cheryl is retired from Colonial Manor, where she worked as Head Cook.

Cheryl is a member of Womens Relief Society of The LDS Church. William is a member of High Priest Group of The LDS Church.

William A. and Cheryl A. (Warner) Baumgardner Sr.

<http://www.timesreporter.com/article/20150124/NEWS/150129662>

Print Page