

Dover resident named 'Woman of the Year'

MRS. LARRY PARRISH

Mrs. Larry (Carol) Parrish of 609 Short st., Dover, was named "Woman of the Year" at Monday night's meeting of the Amitie Chapter of American Business Women's Assn.

A three-year member of the group, Mrs. Parrish has served as co-chairman of the banquet committee and chairman of the ways and means committee. She is currently chairman of the hospitality committee. She is a member of New Philadelphia United Methodist Church, Dover Parent Teachers Assn. and is an eight-year member of the Dover Jaycee Wives where she has served on several committees and held several offices.

Mrs. Parrish is a three year employee of the Delocon Wholesale Supply Inc. at Bolivar and has received two certificates of achievement. One is from the Masonite Corp. for completing a retail sales training program and from the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. for completing phone power school.

She is the mother of a 10-year-old son and lists her hobbies as camping, knitting and bowling. A daughter is deceased.

Mrs. James (Betty) Ickes Sr., last year's winner, presented Mrs. Parrish a charm. Mrs. Parrish also received the table floral centerpiece and it was announced that she will attend the national ABWA convention in October at New Orleans where she will receive her certificate, chapter standard of achievement and banner award.

Speakers were Hazel Yockey and Estelle Roehlig, who spoke on the regional convention at Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. Lenny (Frances) Rothacher of A-1 Realty Inc. at Carrollton was vocational speaker. Hazel Yockey asked the invocation and Jean Kilchenman, the benediction.

Lou Beucher, Mrs. Bert (Jan) Reese, Mrs. John (Joyce) Correll, Mrs. Glen (Jean) Gasser, Mrs. Eldon (Mary Lou)

Lahmers and Mrs. Dale (Thelma) Schwartz were initiated into membership.

Guests were Mrs. Robert Graef, Mrs. Zane Spangler, Mrs. Albert Eby, Mrs. James Burlison, Pam Crawley, Sandy

Schrader and Becky Michael.

Announcement was made that the May 17 mother-daughter banquet will be held in New Philadelphia Broadway United Methodist Church.
