MISS ME – BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has
set for me,
I want no rites in a
gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared:

Miss me – but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take;
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrow in doing good deeds:
Miss me – But let me go.
