

Dover okays after-school Bible class

By DIANE YALE

Student interest prompted the Dover board of education Monday night to approve the use of a classroom after regular school hours for a Bible study class to be instructed by Rev. John Ferguson of the Dover Bible Church.

Rev. Ferguson, in a letter to Supt. Bill Kinneer, said he was requesting the classroom after several students had asked him to teach a Bible study course. The Dover Ministerial Assn. will be informed of the board's action.

Board members were asked to consider nominations to the board of trustees of the Buckeye Joint Vocational School for next month's meeting. Dover will have two members on the seven-member board.

The board also:

— ACCEPTED the tax rates set by the budget commission and authorized the necessary tax levies.

— EMPLOYED Patricia Rockenhauer as an assistant librarian at the junior high at $9068.

— HIRED Carol Edie and Jerry Renner as bus drivers at $3.12 per hour, bringing the number of women bus drivers to six out of 13.

— RECOMMENDED that Mary Antonelli, a senior, be given home instruction as illness prevents her from attending school.

— APPROVED higher salaries due to additional training for Thomas Berens, Jeanne Boich, Barbara Peeper, Rebecca Settle, and Stanley Zurowski, from bachelors to bachelors plus 15 hours; Walter Gibson, Marlene MacLachlan, Russell McGlothlin, and John Neighbor, from bachelors plus 15 hours to masters; and Raymond Luyster, Ted Martin, Don Marshall, Donna Moore, and Glen Groh, from masters to masters plus 15 hours.

— APPOINTED as substitute teachers Kenneth J. Yakus, Gerald Stoughton, Yolanda Krause, Thomas Margo, William Walker, Lucia Seymour, Thomas Fragasse, David Miller, Sue Crim, Melvin F. Reynolds and David Andreas.

— GRANTED permission to the Eastern District Board of Control to hold the Class A basketball sectional tournament in the high school gym from Feb. 20 to March 3, 1973, at a rental of $125 per night with Lawrence Baker serving as tournament manager.

— VOTED to send Charles E. Wilson to the Flexible Scheduling Institute in Rochester, N. Y., on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 at a cost of $245 and Raymond Luyster to the Ohio Guidance Conference in Columbus on Sept. 29 and 30 at a cost of $54.75.
