

School board members to attend state parley

Forty delegates and alternates from area schools will attend the annual 3-day meeting of the Ohio School Boards Assn. beginning Wednesday in Columbus.

They will consider resolutions and legislative policies and elect 1974 officers. Major speakers will be Att. F. Lee Bailey, Cincinnati Bengals chaplain Rev. Richard J. Connelly and Jesse Owens, who won four gold medals in various races at the 1936 Olympics.

Also, the third annual All-Ohio School Board will be named and a 175-booth trade show of school supplies and products will be held.

Delegates and alternates are:

Dover, Carl Pissocra and Shirley Miller; New Philadelphia, James Pritz and Joanne Limbach; Tuscarawas County, Cloyd B. Sherer and Kenneth E. Kohl; Strasburg-Franklin, Robert Freitag Jr. and Harry H. Heid; Indian Valley, Wilbert DiGenova and William Eberly;

Tuscarawas Valley, Nick Ferry Jr. and Adrian S. Reed; Newcomerstown, Clyde Barthalow and Harold Huff; Garaway, George Smith and Jack Zinkon; Sandy Valley,

John D. Slutz and William Locker; Fairless, Roger Leighley and Lawrence Marzulli; Carroll County and Brown Local, Kenneth Currie and Don Dean; Coshocton County, John R. Boyd and Vernon Dreher; Coshocton City, Jerome M. Stenner and H. David Leppla; Ridgewood, Wayne Zimmerman and Mrs. Delma Burt;

River View, Douglas Swigert and Jack Kanuckel; Harrison County and Conotton Valley Union, Lester Stearns and Dr. Kenneth Lloyd; Harrison Hills City, Richard Dunlap and Dr. Joe Ponzani; Holmes County, Forrest Chanay and Robert Maurer; East Holmes, Charles Sigrist Jr. and Dr. Carl Yoder; West Holmes, Joe J. Weltmer and S. James Hastings.