

School boards group to meet

A regional meeting of the Ohio School Boards Assn. study committee on county boards of education is scheduled for 6:30 Wednesday in Buckeye Joint Vocational School.

The meeting is an outgrowth of the 1983 OSBA assembly mandate supporting a needs assessment study of the current structure of county school board systems. The study committee seeks opinions of the current system of delivering educational services and any ideas on change of structure.

Only current board members and superintendents are invited to participate by by written or oral statement. This is the third of a six regional meetings planned around the state.
