

Outstanding FFA members feted

Several members of Buckeye Joint Vocational School's Future Farmers of America chapter were honored at the organization's annual awards banquet Thursday night.

JoAnne Starkey, for state FFA officer from Carrollton, was the guest speaker. Bruce Mumma, past treasurer, was recognized as the outstanding past officer and Barbara Small was crowned FFA queen for 1984-85. Small will represent Buckeye JVS at the FFA queen contest at the Ohio State Fair.

Fourteen outstanding students were recognized.

Juniors were: Kim Herman, ag mechanics; Chris Zuchegno, small engines; Todd Mutti, farm management; Dave McCleary and Chip Wollom, food processing; Cindy Saling, horticulture; Bruce

Beamer, natural resources.

Seniors were: Paul Diegmiller, small engines; Mike Kruprzak, ag mechanics; Scott Ripley, food processing; Kevin Fruchey, natural resources; Janet Tucker, horticulture; Jim Newell, farm management.

Named as most improved chapter members were seniors Ron Evert, small engines; Bill Burger, natural resources; Tracey Colvin, horticulture; Jerry Douglas, food processing; Rick Smith, farm management; Harvey Miller, ag mechanics; and juniors Phillip LeGlise, ag mechanics; Terry Gaskill, farm management; Susan Boyd, food processing; Greg Clark, small engines.

RIPLY

MUTTI

DIEGMILLER

KRUPRZAK

SALING

MUMMA

TUCKER

BEAMER

FRUCHEY

NEWELL

WOLLUM

McCLEARY

HERMAN

ZUCHEGNO