

Tornadoes romp 10-2 to gain 'AA' sectional finals

T-R/Chris Russell

SOUTH BASERUNNER DAN JACKSON TRIES TO DIVE BACK TO SECOND BASE DURING TOURNEY ACTION AT GNADENHUTTEN

Conotton Valley shortstop Gary Kirkpatrick awaits pickoff throw from pitcher Quint Carrothers to tag out Jackson

Conotton tops South 4-1 in Class A play

Paul Monaco raised his pitching record to 4-2 as he struck out six and walked five in 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ innings of work Monday, hurling Dover to a 10-2 win over West Holmes in Class AA sectional baseball action at River View High.

Monaco also singled and doubled for the 9-4-1 Tornadoes, who face the winner of today's scheduled Tusky Valley/Ridgewood encounter Saturday at 12 for the sectional title.

Greg Lutz paced the Dover attack with a home run and single for two RBIs. Mike Sudduth singled three times to drive in one run, while Brian Poland plated a run with his triple. Sid Beitzel singled and doubled, while Jeff Mason added two singles.

Rod Arnold paced West Holmes (5-7) with a triple and Staush Cass, who absorbed the mound defeat, hit a double.