Prior to the kick-off of tonight's 79th Dover - Phila. classic a gift of the original architects watercolor painting of Crater Stadium, dated 1935, is being presented to the students of Dover Senior High School by Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. "Dutch" and Dorothy Hisrich to be permanently preserved and located in the high school (athletic trophy display area, in the gym lobby).

Mr. Hisrich, age 86, attended Dover Schools and is one of only two living members of the Dover Blues, an early semi-professional football team which preceeded the formation of the N.F.L.

The team was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio in 1970. Their last games were played on the original field at the exact site of today's Crater Stadium.

Mr. Hisrich pointed out that it is interesting to note that the shape of the stadium was uniquely created to be a capitol block "D", which has not changed even with the recent additions. He stated, "We have one of the finest fields in the state. We are pleased to give this gift to today's and future generations of Dovers students to enjoy."

Reprint From The Times-Reporter

By Rea Taiclet

A special situation has come to this corner's attention — one in which we'd like to see the dream of a lifetime come true for a nice young man.

He hasn't asked for our help, so we're volunteering it.

Dover High graduate Mark Black wants to go to Colorado Springs in November to try and win a spot on the 1984 U.S. Olympic team as a Greco-Roman wrestler. He needs money. About $3,000 now, maybe more later.

Recently graduated from Ashland College, where he was a three-time All-American wrestler, Black currently is substitute teaching in the area and is working on his own time with the Dover junior high football program.

His former high school mat coach, Paul Mowrey, says, "Mark is probably the finest wrestler ever to come out of this county. How many All-Americans have we had here? As a man, he is pure class. He's a gentleman, a Christian, and a friend to all who know him.

"I think he deserves a chance that very few individuals get. There are no guarantees in this — or in anything else — but the opportunity is there and it should be his to make the best of it he can."

Greco-Roman wrestling differs from the usual form in that it features upper body strength and throws. The legs cannot be attacked.

Black has worked unceasingly in the weight room at Crater Stadium, preparing himself physically and mentally for the test that he hopes he can take. One look at him proves his dedication has paid off.

The other payoff, of course, is the cash he needs to finance his stay at the Olympic training center and through a series of winter elimination tournaments. Candidates for the Olympic team must foot their own bills for lodging, food, entry fees and travel expenses during the tryout period.

The Dover Kimanis Club has already voted to donate $250 to the fund.

Since we agree with Mowrey, we would like to see other community service organizations and individuals join in.

Contributions can be sent to: The Mark Black Fund, in care of Paul Mowrey (chairman), Dover High School, 520 N. Walnut St., Dover, 44622.

For more information, call Coach Mowrey at 343-4690.

*Please don't curse that boy down there
He is my son you see
He's only just a boy you know
He means the world to me
I did not raise my son, dear fan
for you to call him names,
He may not be a superstar
It's just a high school game.
So please don't curse those boys down there
They do the best they can,
They never tried to lose a game,
They're boys, and you're a man.*

*This game belongs to them, you see,
You're really just a guest,
They do not need a fan like you,
They need the very best.
If you have nothing nice to say,
Please leave the boys alone
And if you have no manners,
Why don't you stay at home!
So please don't curse those boys down there
Each one's his parents' son,
and win or lose or tie, you see,
To us, they're NUMBER ONE!!!*
