

Pairings announced for T-R cage tourney to open Monday night

Drawings for The Times-Reporter's 12th annual One-on-One basketball tournament were held Monday night at Dover High.

The four seeded players in the boys' division are: 1. Cliff Lairson, Malvern; 2. Mike Ross, Central Catholic; 3. Jim Musacchia, Fairless; and 4. Todd King, Ridgewood.

In the girls' division, the top seeds are: 1. Lisa Cline, West Holmes; 2. Susan Mueller, Garaway; 3. Beth Manson, Sandy Valley; and 4. Diane Croy, Ridgewood.

THE SEEDED players are chosen by The T-R sports staff, which invites all tournament participants.

This summer's tournament, which will be held in the Dover High gym, opens Monday and continues through Friday, June 15.

The public is invited, and admission is free.

Matches will start at 6:30 p.m. Monday and Tuesday and at 7 the remainder of the week. The tournament quarterfinals will be held Thursday and the semifinals and finals on Friday.

A year ago, Garaway senior Jim Widder and West Holmes' Cline claimed the One-on-One championships. Cline, a junior, returns to defend her girls' title this year.

TROPHIES WILL be presented to the champion and runnerup of each division. All other semifinalist receive a plaque. Each entrant gets an official One-on-One T-shirt.

One-on-One programs will be available at the door every night, free of charge. Brackets showing the complete One-on-One schedule will be published in Saturday's T-R.

Players added to the tournament field since the initial announcement are: Raleigh Anderson, Coshocton; Aric Warner, Indian Hills Christian; Jeany Heck, New Philadelphia; Molly Maher, Tuscarawas Valley; Heather Smith, Jewett-Scio; and Cindy Troyer, Hiland. They replace teammates who withdrew.
