Leading Boys Class 'A' Marks

John Adams looking good with four ranking leaders

Cleveland John Adams continues to improve by leaps and bounds. Based on performances to date, the Rebels should have a good shot at the state AAA crown later this month.

Optimism abounds because Adams has outstanding sprinters and this week has three of the state's leading times and a share of another. Harold Madox has a 47.6 in the 400-meter dash and the Rebels are 42.0 in the 400 relay and 3:16.2 in the 1,600 relay. In addition, the Rebels have ranking sprinters, including Melran Leach who shares first place in the 100 with a time of 10.5.

A team to watch is St. Ignatius and incomparable Mike Huber. Last Saturday at the Rider Relays in Miami, O., Huber regained the top time in the state at 800 meters with 1:51.5. Earlier he ran a 1:50.9 anchor on Ignatius' winning 3,200-meter relay, 7:48.7, tops in Ohio. Juan Del Valle, Dan Shaughnessy and Jim Patterson joined Huber.

Mansfield Senior's Eric Toddie, who has Ohio's best long jump at 24-6, posted a hard-to-believe 21.1 for 200 meters.

Steve Burson of AA Ravenna Southeast unleashed the longest shot put in the state this season, 64-5½ last week. He's the third to go over 60 feet this year. And Pat Weigel of AA Buckeye upped his state-best discus mark to 172-7.

Debbie Krzys of Medina Buckeye took over the lead in the 400 with 58.7. She's also among the state leaders in the 100 and 200.

Freshman Kelly Horrigan of Rocky River uncorked a 11:56.3 for 3,200 meters.

Two alltime Ohio records were set last week. Collinwood's foursome of Monique Dominick, Michelle Simmons, Lashon Lyles and Latanya Johnson smashed the girls' sprint medley record with 1:49.0 at the Mentor Cardinal Relays.

Dayton Dunbar broke the all-Ohio boys shuttle low hurdles record with 54.4 last week at the Don Mitchell Roosevelt Memorial meet in Dayton. The old mark of 55.3 was shared by Dayton Roth and Cleveland Heights in 1982.

Diggs plays big role for Hartley

Theresa Diggs of Columbus Bishop Hartley has been a member of the team for four years and each season she shows improvement.

She won the 55-meter dash at the Ohio Indoor Classic with 7.2. She also took the long jump at 16-10. Currently she has three ranking marks outdoors this season, 12.0 in the 100, 26.8 in the 200 and 16-6 in the long jump.

Last season, Diggs was seventh in the state 100 and 200-meter dashes.

"Theresa and our girls team is talented and we hope to do well," says coach Jeri Price.
