

Dover, Phila netters win

Troy Furbay of New Philadelphia lost his first singles match of the year Monday, but the Quakers defeated host Canton McKinley 4-1.

Furbay, who finished the season 14-1 as the Quakers' No. 1 singles player, fell to McKinley's Roger Gordon 6-3, 1-6, 6-3. New Philadelphia ended the regular season at 14-1.

Rob Wherley of the Quakers also finished 14-1 as he defeated Chris Ramos 6-4, 6-2. Jim Amick defeated Tony Talarico 6-4, 6-3 in No. 3 singles.

Dover 5, Akron Green 0

Dover's Mike Myers became the first tennis player in the history of the school to complete an undefeated season Monday as the Tornadoes romped over Akron Green.

Myers defeated Rick Roman 6-0, 6-0 to complete his season at 18-0 in No. 2 singles. Dover ended 13-5 in regular season play.

Jay Dalpiaz, the Tornadoes' freshman No. 1 singles player, defeated Simone Dagio 6-3, 6-7 (7-5), 6-3 to finish 11-7. Kyle Miller, as well as the doubles teams of Jim Smith and Geoff Neal and Brian Knecht and Aaron Hixenbaugh, ended up the season at 12-6 with Monady's wins.