

District track slated this week

High school district track and field tournaments will be on tap this week.

Action begins Wednesday with the Bellaire Class AA district. Cadiz is the only team from The Times-Reporter coverage area involved in this meet, which concludes Friday night. The top four finishers in each event advance to the regional meet at Muskingum College in New Concord.

THE RIVER VIEW 'AA' district will be held Thursday and Saturday. Competing in the boys' division from The T-R area will be Coshocton, Dover, West Holmes, Claymont, Ridgewood and Tusky Valley. The girls' division includes Coshocton, West Holmes, Claymont, River View, Ridgewood and Tusky Valley. The top four places advance to the New Concord regional.

The Newcomerstown Class A district also will be held Thursday and Saturday. Both divisions include Hiland, Indian Valley South, Malvern, Indian Valley North, Newcomerstown, Central Catholic, Strasburg and Garaway. Two boys and four girls will move on to the New Concord regional.

THE NEW CONCORD 'AAA' district will be held Friday. In the boys' division are Carrollton, New Philadelphia and River View. The girls' division includes Carrollton, Dover and New Philadelphia. The top two finishers return for the regionals, also at Muskingum College.

The Sandy Valley and Fairless boys' and girls' track teams will be involved in the Roosevelt 'AA' district at Kent.