

KEVIN CARANDA OF DOVER UNLEASHES A PASS
He was among Punt, Pass and Kick competitors

Six youngsters advance in Punt, Pass and Kick

Six youngsters captured first place honors in their age divisions Sunday in the Dover-New Philadelphia Punt, Pass and Kick competition at Quaker Stadium.

Advancing to the zone contest, to be held Oct. 15 at Coshocton, were:

Jim Huston of 515 2nd st. NE, New Philadelphia, 8-year-olds; Doug Weigand of 431 Shawnee dr., Dover, 9-year-olds; Steve Gasser of 1267 Crestview av. SW, New Philadelphia, 10-year-olds; Denver L. Monte of RD 5, New Philadelphia, 11-year-olds; Jim Lanza of 210 S. McKinley av., Dover, 12-year-olds, and Todd Altier of 151 S. Fairview av., Dover, 13-year-olds.

The 17th annual competition was sponsored by Harry Humphries Ford City and the New Philadelphia Jaycees, with Trevor Buehler and Eugene Nemitz serving as co-chairmen.

Twenty-five members of the Jaycees conducted the event, which attracted 150 boys and girls.

THE RESULTS, by age group and in order of finish, were:

Eight-year-olds — Huston, 125 points; Jay W. Herbert of 2707 Wyandot dr., Dover, 118; Jon D. Schoelles of RD 5, New Philadelphia, 110.

Nine-year-olds — Weigand, 153½ points; Tony Miccichi of 1260 Lakeview rd. NW, New Philadelphia, 147; Brian A. Weber of 477 3rd st. NE, New Philadelphia, 146½.

Ten-year-olds — Gasser, 196½ points; Paul A. Monaco of 1800 Tremont st., Dover, 193½; Daniel D. Reinhart of Stone Creek, 188.

Eleven-year-olds — Monte, 191 points; Scott Vinci of 476 2nd st. NE, New Philadelphia, 184½; Billy Erington of RD 4, New Philadelphia, 181.

Twelve-year-olds — Lanza, 225 points; Alvin Ledrich of 146 6th dr. SE, New Philadelphia, 195½; Rick Braglin of 309 W. 16th st., Dover, 188.

Thirteen-year-olds — Altier, 264 points; Greg Marsh of 135 E. Broadway, Dover, 237; Butch Braglin of 309 W. 16th st., Dover, 233½.