D.H.S. ORCHESTRA

The orchestra found 1981 — 1982 to be a very busy year. They performed out of town for the first time, had a successful fruitcake sale, and gave a nice, new, fresh look to the orchestra room. The Community Friends, an organization of older string players, joined orchestra members in presenting a concert this year.

The orchestra officers for 1981 — 1982, pictured above, were: President — Diana Kurtz, Advisor — Mr. Gallespie, and Secretary — Treasurer — Joyce Rentsch. Vice-President Kim Callen was absent when the picture was taken. To the left, we find Jim Pierson, Debbie Burkhart, and Joyce Rentsch giving their full attention to Mr. Gallespie as he instructs them on how to hold their instruments and on other orchestra-related matters.

1982 WAS A VERY GOOD

YEAR FOR DOVER BAND

This year the majorettes were a busy group. We started practicing in June to get ready for camp at Olgelbay, West Virginia, in July. We came home with second place trophy and West Virginia accents! To some of the Majorettes the hardest task was learning new routines; to others, it was battling the cold weather, but to most it was making weight for the weekly weigh-in! All in all, we had a very good year, one I'm sure we will never forget, especially the 1½'s in the Phila show!

Head Majorette Sally Zifer

This year the Dover Band went through a transition. After Mr. Goudy led the Band through a successful marching season, Mr. Lyon "directed" the symphonic band into straight 1's at District Band Contest. No band member will ever forget Mr. Delphia, Mr. Lyon, Mr. Goudy or Mr. Gellespie. These men have had a great influence over our lives and the fine guidance they have given us is priceless.

DHS Choir 1982

This year was an exciting year for the choir. Under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Hall, our new choir director, the choir received a superior, I, rating at District choir competition, which qualified them for State Competition. The Women's Chorus received an excellent, II, rating at District Competition.
