"Dover's

Weekend in New England"

A cool October night was the setting for D.H.S.'s 1982 Homecoming, "Weekend in New England." The band R.P.M. played at the annual event sponsored by Student Council.

Opposite page left corner: the 1982 Homecoming Queen Holly Kandel and her court, Lori Dusenberry and Jane Karl. Opposite page bottom left corner: Pam and Doug dance as they hold each other up. Opposite page top right: a moment of emotion as Holly is crowned. Opposite page bottom right: Chris and Steve take time out to pose for the Camera. Above left: Pete and his date dream about dancing. Bottom left: Jane and her date. Above right: Chris and Andrea, a pretty sophisticated pair.

IN THE HEARTLAND

This year's Sweater Hop was a big success. The band Krystal supplied the music, but everyone else supplied the fun. The theme for the "hop" was In the Heartland, and wasn't it appropriate! At right: Scott McCartney and Joel Hamsher show off their dates. Opposite page top: Becky and Scott, they really know how to boogie. Opposite page right: Julie Smith and her date sit this one out. Opposite page bottom: Lew and Darla compliment each other on their wardrobe.

Spanish Nights 1983 Jr.-Sr. Prom

*Queen:
Regina Miller
Attendants:
Holly Kandel
Pam Alesiano*

April 15

The junior class presented us all with "Spanish Nights," the theme of this year's prom. This year's added attractions included a brick walkway, leafy palms, and a fountain that really worked. Top right, people eagerly enter the gym for a night of dancing.

Prom Night: Tailored Suits, Shined

Shoes and Sultry Smiles

Everyone enjoys a nice slow dance to match the mood of Prom Night. Right: Wayne Parish and Jamie Taylor switch partners — what a pair!
