THE BOYFRIEND

This year's musical, "THE BOYFRIEND", which was set in the roaring 20's in France, turned out to be a great success. Audiences of great capacity enjoyed the singing, dancing, and comedy that the play provided. All the effort that went into the musical was deeply appreciated.

BACKSTAGE

Backstage. The other part of the play which the audience never gets to see. Many long hours of hard work are spent at rehearsals to make sure that everything goes just right when the opening night arrives. When the night finally arrives, the cast is at the school hours before the curtain opens for their make-up and hair to be done. After the play is over, many good friends and memories have been gained for a lifetime.
