SPIRITED ...

Three cheers for D.H.S. students who really got into the sights, sounds and SPIRIT of the old Crimson and Gray tradition, while adding a few new attractions along the way!

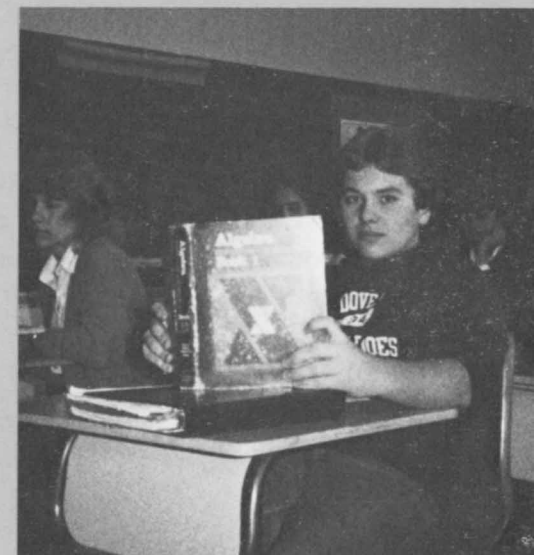

SOMETIMES SERIOUS,

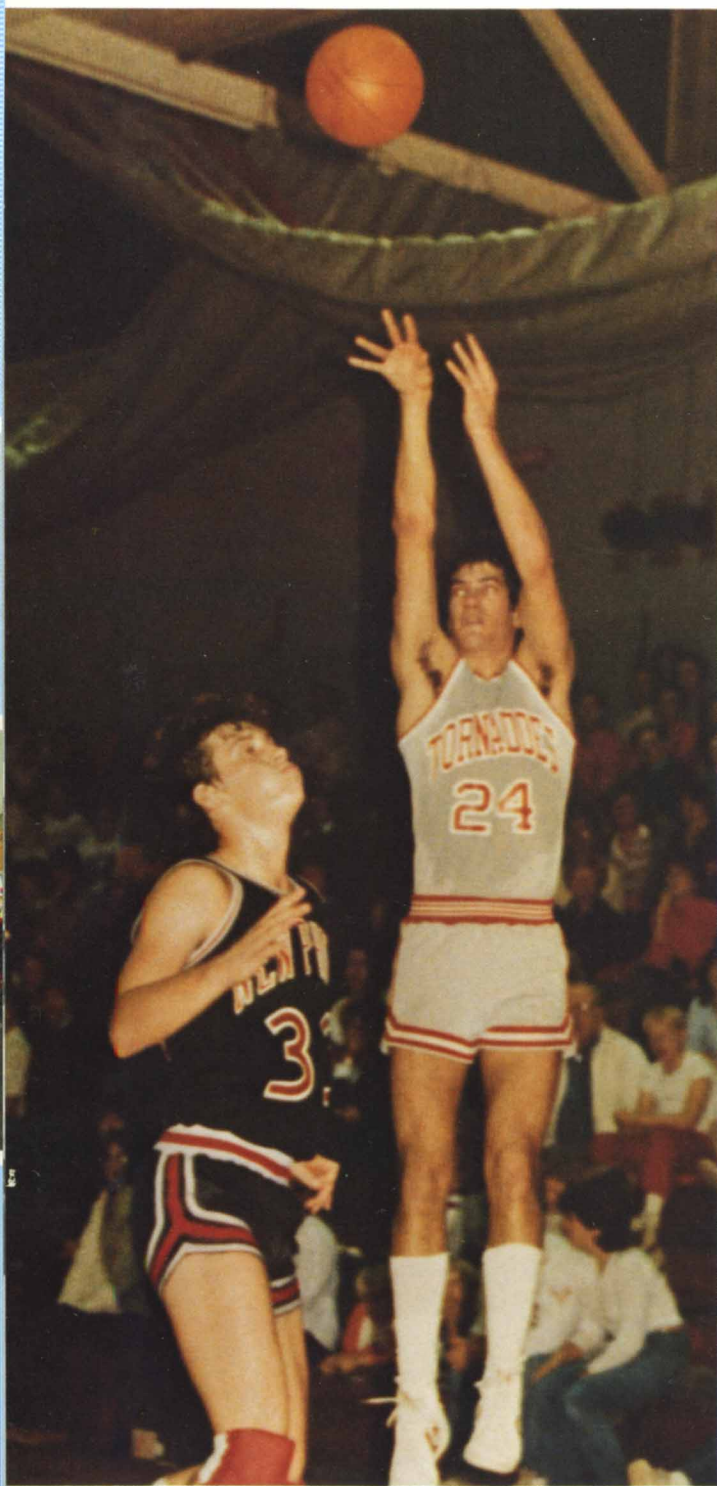

SOMETIMES NOT ...

With school starting up again, people had different attitudes toward school. Some were up to their usual antics of trying to look busy in study hall and classes, while others were reunited with their friends and took to sitting on the hallway benches. Others busied themselves with the new computers, and many ventured into the world of business.

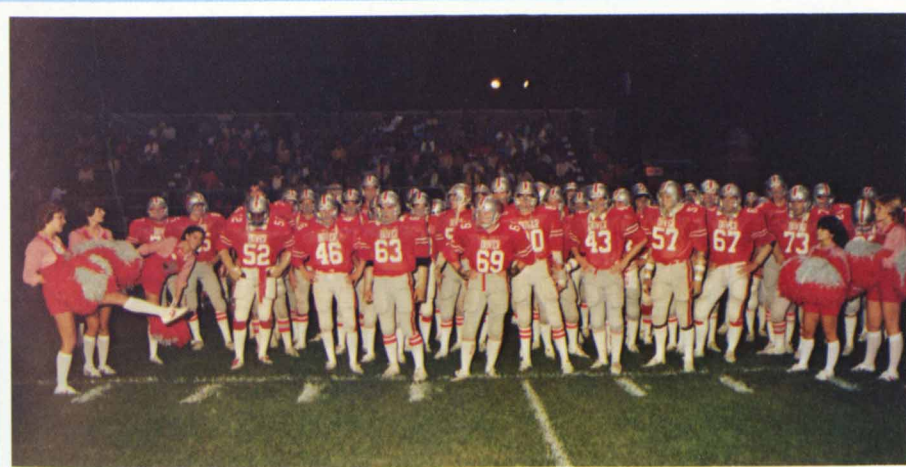

INVOLVED....

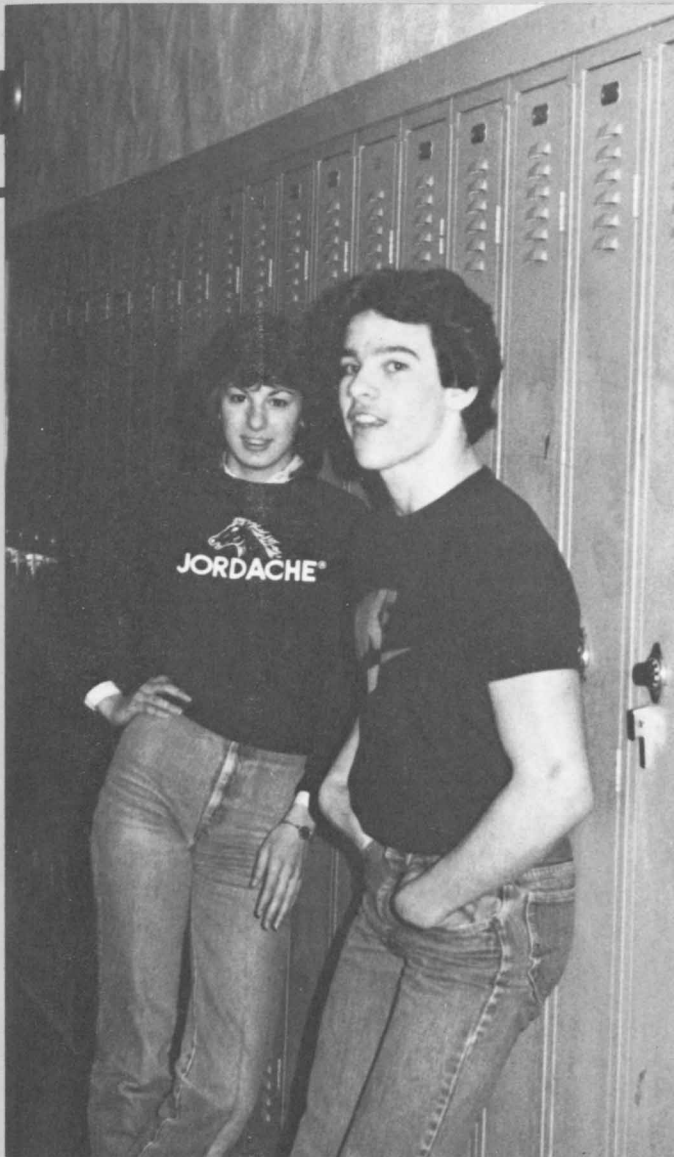

Students at D.H.S. were involved in a large number of activities this year. A popular activity in the fall was for students to decorate their halls for football games. Some were into sports and computers, while others were interested in cooking. Clubs were busy having parties and selling candy for money-making projects.

FRIENDLY

— VERY — FRIENDLY

This year at D.H.S. many old friendships were rekindled and many new ones sprung up. In addition, there were the usual "special" friendships. Whether these friends were casual or really close, they supported each other, talked, and had lots of fun throughout the year.

and ... WINNERS!

In one of the highlights of the year, our mighty football team continued the winning tradition by making it four in a row over the boys from Phila.

“OPEN?” REGISTRATION

Each spring the underclassmen of DHS undertake the nearly impossible task of maneuvering their schedule through the maze of registration. Students race from table to table trying to get in before the dreaded “CLOSED CLASS” sign is displayed for one of their courses. First there’s Station A, then Checkpoint Charlie, student numbers, Station D-1 D-2, two copies of everything, . . . ; is there no end!

But in spite of all this chaos, every year we all seem to get the classes we want, even if it’s not when we want them.

"Dover's

Weekend in New England"

A cool October night was the setting for D.H.S.'s 1982 Homecoming, "Weekend in New England." The band R.P.M. played at the annual event sponsored by Student Council.

Opposite page left corner: the 1982 Homecoming Queen Holly Kandel and her court, Lori Dusenberry and Jane Karl. Opposite page bottom left corner: Pam and Doug dance as they hold each other up. Opposite page top right: a moment of emotion as Holly is crowned. Opposite page bottom right: Chris and Steve take time out to pose for the Camera. Above left: Pete and his date dream about dancing. Bottom left: Jane and her date. Above right: Chris and Andrea, a pretty sophisticated pair.

IN THE HEARTLAND

This year's Sweater Hop was a big success. The band Krystal supplied the music, but everyone else supplied the fun. The theme for the "hop" was In the Heartland, and wasn't it appropriate! At right: Scott McCartney and Joel Hamsher show off their dates. Opposite page top: Becky and Scott, they really know how to boogie. Opposite page right: Julie Smith and her date sit this one out. Opposite page bottom: Lew and Darla compliment each other on their wardrobe.

Spanish Nights 1983 Jr.-Sr. Prom

*Queen:
Regina Miller
Attendants:
Holly Kandel
Pam Alesiano*

April 15

The junior class presented us all with "Spanish Nights," the theme of this year's prom. This year's added attractions included a brick walkway, leafy palms, and a fountain that really worked. Top right, people eagerly enter the gym for a night of dancing.

Prom Night: Tailored Suits, Shined

Shoes and Sultry Smiles

Everyone enjoys a nice slow dance to match the mood of Prom Night. Right: Wayne Parish and Jamie Taylor switch partners — what a pair!

Is the World Ready?

Finally we were the SENIOR CLASS! It was a long time coming, but it passed all too quickly. Now we say the things everybody says; we had great times which we will treasure the rest of our lives. And you know? We really will.

Now Comes the Question: Will the Lockers Fall off the walls in Senior Hall When the '83 Seniors Are Not There to Hold Them UP?

Throughout their busy days, Seniors seemed to get a lot of "support" from their lockers. Mary Franks, Jim Lanza, and Jan Neiger find a lot of solace near the familiar tan door. Above, Joan Wherley searches through her friendly old locker once more.

What It Takes To Be a Senior

The once-in-a-lifetime role of high school senior happened again this year with the class of 1983. But behind the glamour and prestige of being a senior is another side of senior life. Only past graduates know what must go on during the last year of high school. These include getting a senior picture taken and getting them all handed out, filling out ACT and SAT forms before the deadline, taking the ACT and SAT, ordering announcements, taking as many college prep courses as possible, visiting colleges, asking Mrs. Celce for copies of high school transcripts, applying for scholarships, making sure you have enough credits to graduate, ordering your cap and gown, begging your teachers for recommendations, passing your classes, digging out lost library books, paying back fines, ordering your yearbook, ordering senior hat, battling against senioritis, looking for a summer job, addressing graduation announcements, and practicing for commencement. The sophomores and juniors better enjoy the time before they become a Dover High School Senior.

Senior Survey

Where is your favorite place to "Park"?

Yes, only a liberal publication such as this would dare to ask such a controversial and revealing question. We sought to determine the real secrets behind those late nights when your parents think you're at a movie or out roller skating. Of course we got some nasty looks and some rude comments, but we've restricted ourselves to printing only those things that we'd want our own parents to know. And here they are:

Scott Dunlap.....	Down by the River
Eric Foltz.....	Behind Friendly's Restaurant
Rick Figuly.....	In the woods (Timber!)
Todd Altier.....	At the Shack
Joan Whereley	Anywhere "they" take me!
Steve Moser	In my garage
Phil Gordon	In Steve's garage
David Huff	What, are you crazy! I'm not telling you!
James Pierson.....	Behind the third planet of the Photar Nebula in the Galaxy M31.
Scott Kelicker.....	Dover Pool

Good Times

Seniors anxiously waited for the day when they would graduate and they set the pace for the rest of the students. They kept a smile on their faces during the year, but of course they had their reasons. Above left, Jodi White practices her cosmetology skills in preparation for the future. Some of their days were made even more special by other "special" people. Top right, Cathy Feller and the "Balloonatik" give us those senior smiles. Bottom, Kevin and Charlene threaten Paul with scissors if he takes their picture one more time!

OH WHAT A VARSITY SQUAD!

This year's varsity squad worked very well together. Besides having a great time, they kept the spirit going throughout the winning season, despite the few losses. Pictured at the left is the 1982-83 Varsity squad. Left to right — Captain Julie Margletta, Steph Deeds, Becky Zifer, Cathy Feller, Charlene McHenry, and Amy Contini. Bottom left — The cheerleaders take time out to pose before their first pep rally of the year. Below — Becky and Charlene lead the crowd in a cheer.

Compliments of
Boleck's Craft
Supply.

KEEPING THE SPIRIT ALIVE!

Pictured at top left — The cheerleaders in action. Top right — The Varsity cheerleaders mascot, "the unicorn." At the left — the 1982-83 Reserve squad. Bottom row — left to right — Captain Leslie Yosick, Andrea Morton, Lori Harris. Middle row — Debbie Daley, Jenny Espencheid. Top — Jodi Bitokofer. To the right — The squad making their parents proud on Parent's Night. Dover High School and Fredric Delphia will not soon forget the great cheerleading squads of the '82 football season.

C.C. CHAMPS — ONCE AGAIN!

The expectations of the Dover Tornadoes for the 1982 season were very high. The team started out with victories over Columbus South and St. Thomas Aquinas. But then a two-week stretch hurt the team, and a one point loss to rival Claymont and a five-point loss to undefeated Steubenville seemed to spell disaster. Although the Tornadoes continued to struggle, a one-point loss to Wooster seemed to put hopes for a fourth straight conference championship on the shelf. The true Tornado spirit came to the surface against Mansfield Madison, and who can forget the last-second victory over North Canton! But the icing on the cake came when Dover dominated New Phila for the 4th time in a row in the local classic. This victory and a Wooster loss gave the Tornadoes their 4th straight cardinal championship.

Scoreboard

DOVER 41 — Columbus South 0
DOVER 14 — St. Thomas Aquinas 7
DOVER 14 — CLAYMONT 15
DOVER 13 — STEUBENVILLE 18
DOVER 41 — Coshocton 0
DOVER 6 — WOOSTER 7
DOVER 20 — Mansfield Madison 0
DOVER 24 — North Canton 22
DOVER 48 — Ashland 6
DOVER 13 — New Phila 7

Below — Coach Maltarich ends his final season with a fantastic finish over Phila. Right — Awesome Altier stops Phila's single wing offense.

Compliments of
BUEHLER'S FOOD
MARKETS

Pictured at the left: Brock Jones and Todd Barr greet the Aquinas quarterback. Middle left: Steve Cox, gains more yardage for a tornado touchdown. Directly below: Greg Heller looks for an opening in the line. At the bottom left are the 1982 football coaches. Row 1 — Doug Strictmaker, Dave Contini, Jim Meese, Tom Armstrong. Row 2 — Duke Strictmaker, Terry Corder, Head Coach Bob Maltrich, Rick Staley, John Marks. Bottom Right — 1982 trainers. Row 1 — Bobbie Morton, Chris Mizer, Scott Beitzel. Row 2 — Tim Watkins, Larry Beeble, Chris Groh.

TORNADOES TOOK IT TO THE TOP

ABILITY AND SPIRIT KEPT

Sophomores — Row 1 — left to right — Dave Burtcher, Scott Kaser, Greg Arbogast, Jeff Fickes, Jeff Froman, Marc Birtcher, Dan Dearth, Jamie Schubach. Standing Row 1 — Eric Mounts, Brian Archer. Row 2 — Bob Boles, Mark Dalechasia. Row 3 — John Feutz. Row 4 — Brian Pollen, John Fox. Row 5 — Bryan Miller. Row 6 — Ryan Armstrong, Chris Wagner. Row 7 — John Goss, Mark Kandel. Below: Bryan Miller gives the high five after a great play. Below right: Scott McCartney and Elmer Lepper keep the spirit going. Opposite page — Top: Greg Arbogast runs through a hole his teammates provide for him. Far Left: Mike Bayer escapes the pressure to throw a complete pass. Far right: Mickey proves that he is just as good defensively as he is offensively.

UP THE WINNING TRADITION

The 1982 Freshmen football team.

HARRIERS

Cross a lot of country for D.H.S.

Led by new coach Tom Bowers, the 1982 Cross Country team had a winning season with 3 wins and 2 losses. The team was second in the league and 11th in the sectional. Each of the twelve members did a great job and put forth their best efforts. One of Coach Tom Bower's goals next year is to get enough girls to participate in a girls' cross country team. Congratulations to Coach Bowers and the team for a winning season!!!!

Although their record of 10 wins and 10 losses suggests a somewhat mediocre season, this year's volleyball team was by far the best and most experienced team to wear the Dover colors. Leading the squad of six starting seniors were Dana Gasser, the Most Valuable Player, and Lisa Watkins, who had the Most Points and was awarded the Most Improved Player.

Dover Matmen

The Tornado wrestling team endured their second consecutive losing season with a 5 and 7 record. Defeats at the hands of such powers as Carrollton, Claymont, Ashland, and New Phila were expected, but three frustratingly close losses — including a one pointer — eliminated any possibility of a winning season.

Despite adequate leadership from the Senior class, the numbers were simply not there. Only four seniors — Dan Green, Steve McCartney, Phil Gordon, and Eric Foltz — dotted the whirlwind roster, at least a trio of Freshmen started every match and there was great difficulty in even filling the upper weights. With more experience coming back then has been the case for two years, better times are expected. Gordon and McCartney were four year lettermen and co-captains. Mac went undefeated, earned the Most Valuable Player award, and shared the Most Pins with cousin, Scott. Scott captured Most Improved laurels and was voted captain-elect for next year. Foltz was honored with the Coach's Trophy for Greatest Individual Contribution.

LADY CAGERS

This year's team boasts the best record in several seasons, not to mention the first winning record in many years. Some of the highlights were an exciting last-second win over Coshocton and a close victory over Mansfield Madison. The team was also first place in the Cardinal Conference for much of the season, Sue Eichel lead the way with the most points (292) and the most rebounds (212). Sue was first team Cardinal Conference, second team AP Eastern District, and Honorable Mention All Ohio. Other seniors receiving honors were Bobbie Fuetz (most assists — second team C. Conference), Dana Gasser (Honorable Mention C. Conference), And Tarry Powell (fifth leading scorer). The reserve team ended with a record of 8 wins and 11 losses but there was a definite overall improvement of the team from the beginning of the year to the end.

15-6 Season Record
Cardinal Conference Tournament — 3rd
Sectional — 1st
District — 1st
State — 9th

Lanza and Fernandez teamed up in doubles to take the sectional, district championships, and to take Dover to the State Championships. This marked Dover's first ever trip to the District Finals, as well as the championship and a trip to the state championships. The team lost a close 7-6, 6-3 match to State Runner-up Columbus Bexley.

Lanza, Fernandez, Hunter, & Miller were district qualifiers, with France & Smith alternates. State qualifiers were Lanza, Fernandez, with France as alternate. MVP award went to Lanza; Most Improved to France; Coach's Award to Hunter. Most wins were recorded by Hunter, Miller, and Myers. Lanza holds the school record for career wins (82) and Mike Myers the percentage record (79%).

Girls' Track:

Determination Brought Improvement

Row 3 — Coach Don Ickes, Tracey Judy, Jill Barr, Beth Rini, Diane Kurtz, Joan Wherley, Regina Miller, Steph Strimbu, Becky Zifer, Sue Eichel, Coach Staley.

The track team went 3-4 beating Central Catholic, Wooster, and I.V. South. The girls also placed third in the Tornado Relays which was a big improvement over the last two years.

And Superior Ratings

The 1982-83 School year has indeed been an exciting and productive one for the Dover Band. Traditions, both new and old, paved the way for a most successful Marching Season. The Marching Tornados were received with great enthusiasm by the crowds at their many performances, and rewarded with several standing ovations throughout the season. Band morale was "Sky High" entering concert season and the Winter Concert program was an exciting as the marching performances. In concert band competition, the Symphonic Band proved to be a "Superior" group by earning a superior rating at District Contest and again a Superior Rating in State Level Competition. A special highlight of the year for the band was their participation in the 1983 Blossom Festival Parade in Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada, which proved to be a very educational and enjoyable experience.

The directors worked especially hard and it really paid off. Across the page, Mr. Gillaspie, Mr. Goudy, and Mr. Delphia proudly watch the Phila show. For years we're wondered how Mr. Lyon did it. Now we see he has four hands!

Jazz Band: Above, Scott Kellicker sits quietly, for a second, to play us a bit of music. Left — The Jazz Band was a popular group this year, often performing at the pep assemblies and other places.

The choir is an example of dedication and determination at Dover High. They work all year perfecting their talents. Under the direction of Mr. Hall, they held their traditional Christmas and spring concerts that were attended by many. At the right, we see the kind of determination that Dena Denbow and Holly Harmon exhibit to make the choir a concerted effort.

Everyone enjoys the choir's performance at our assemblies. The above pictures remind us of their efforts in making these times more special and memorable.

Looking Back at a Busy Year

Besides performing their winter and spring concerts, the D.H.S. Choir kept pretty busy. They made a trip to Chicago last spring and participated in solo and ensemble contest. The Girl's Chorus received a superior rating at district contest and went on to state. To make money, the choir sponsored a spring clean-up sale and a tag day.

Now, to answer the question, "What really happens to all those Juniors and Seniors who never show up for school anymore?" we present Buckeye JVS. This is the place that nearly a third of our upper two classes call "home". Do they enjoy it? Let the pictures speak for themselves.

buckeye JVS

"Working For A Living"

We salute these Dover students who have excelled in various areas at BJVS:
Toni Gorby — V.I.C.A. Closing and Opening Team (2nd place at Sectional Competition.)

Elmer Leeper — Honor Roll award, F.F.A. Greenhand Award, F.F.A. Chapter Degree, 1st place district meet judging contest.

Patty Homan — O.E.A. Executive Torch Award

Bonnie Trautman — V.I.C.A. treasurer

Mike Cercone — Outstanding Dover Student at BJVS

Kim Tope — 2nd place Typing and Related 1 — Regional contest, Ohio Office Education Association Award.

Dorothy Smith — O.O.E.A. Parliamentary Procedure Team (6th place at Regional Competition)

Kim Callen — F.F.A. Greenhand Award, F.F.A. Chapter Degree, BJVS Student of the Month in January

Rhonda Ritenour — V.I.C.A. Queen

Shane Abrect, Tammy Eichel, Brenda Polen — O.E.A. Parliamentary Procedure Team (1st Place at Regional, 6th place at State Competition)

Buckeye students are a special kind. They have chosen to break away from the beaten path and take advantage of the great opportunities offered at Buckeye JVS. They meet new friends, learn valuable skills, and get to work in on-the-job situations which prepare them for "life after graduation."

BACK-THE-GUYS & THE DANCE FACTORY

This year Back-the-Guys had another successful year under the leadership of advisor Dotty Jenkins and president Julie Margletta. They decorated lockers and the main hall and sponsored the Spaghetti Dinner. This year the club officially had a few guy members who took the liberty of decorating the cheerleader's lockers. Back-the-Guys helped arouse spirits in the students more than ever.

In Their Hands

Future Teachers continued as an active club which encourages an interest in the teaching profession. One activity that everyone enjoyed was spending a day as a "teacher" in an elementary school. At left, Tracy Herron tries her skills at Park School.

Media Center

Audio Visual Aides

Audio Visual Aides: Tom Jones, Robbie Albert, Dean Huprich, Kevin Atkinson, and Mr. Page.

The Media Center aides are kept busy circulating instructional materials using the video camera, taping off air programs, and dubbing and editing video tapes. The Media Center had fund-raising projects which were used to purchase video tapes and equipment.

The Audio Visual aides dispatch all equipment and help with the operation of the auditorium.

Both the groups are well organized and perform an excellent service to teachers and students.

Far Left: Mrs. Blair interrupts her planning to come to the aid of a teacher.

Bonjour, Buenos Dias,

The Spanish Club kept very busy this year. They had a Christmas meeting and made "ojos de Dios" as a craft. They had many guest speakers. Estaban Fernandez, an exchange student from Costa Rica, was a popular one. They also had an end-of-the-year banquet featuring Mexican food and a pool party at the Delphian Inn. The Spanish Club officers were — Pres. — Michelle Kinsey, V. Pres. — Patty Brown, Sec. — Tony Zito, Treas. — Stacey Waters, Assit. Treas. — Ingrid Moore. We Recognize Special People

The pictures to the right are of the people who took the Ohio Tests of Scholastic Achievement in the field of their choice.

This year several seniors received scholarships and earned special recognition. Jan Neiger won the Ohio High School Philosophy Contest this year on the subject of the Nuclear Arms Race. Jan was one of many seniors who took Advanced Government Seminar, and he was the first medalist since 1969 to win anything on this scale in Social Studies. Scott Kellicker and Phil Gordon each won Board of Regents academic scholarships of $1,000 a year for four years. Scott also won a University of Cincinnati honor scholarship. Other winners were Bobbi Jo Feutz, Muskingum College honor scholarship and the Thomas Armstrong Scholarship; Steve Moser, University of Akron scholarship; Lisa Schwartz and Karen Mizer, Caputo Scholarships; Lew Clark, Bryce Browning award; Jane Karl, Future Teachers scholarship; and Charlene McHenry, Dover Jaycee Charity, Inc. scholarship. Unfortunately, we were unable to mention many other winners.

Spring Break: Fun in the Sun

France: Land of Romance

A few lucky French class students headed for that fascinating land with Mr. Stoughton. Top, Paris, "A woman with flowers in her hair." Right, the famous Eiffel Tower. Middle, Lori & Tammy are windblown and cold on the tower. Middle, Lori & Jenny pose in the latest Paris fashions.

SKI TRIP

The ski club again took its winterly trip to enjoy the white slopes of Swain, New York. The journey proved to be enjoyable for all and a bit painful for a few who seemed to spend more time on their rears than on their skis. We'll mention no names though, O.K. Melanie Malcuit, Becky Zifer, and Renee Milyori? In the lower right, Lourie Schartiger poses before she tackles the mountain. And below, we see the bright and cheery faces of Renee Milyori, Kathy Seni, Steph Deeds, and Becky Zifer who are obviously not ready to tackle anything.

Thespians — The Show Stoppers

This year the Thespians kept up their long standing tradition of producing enjoyable and entertaining plays. Mrs. Rini became the new director, and from the results of the successfulness of the plays she directed, it can easily be seen that she did a great job!

BACKSTAGE

Backstage. The other part of the play which the audience never gets to see. Many long hours of hard work are spent at rehearsals to make sure that everything goes just right when the opening night arrives. When the night finally arrives, the cast is at the school hours before the curtain opens for their make-up and hair to be done. After the play is over, many good friends and memories have been gained for a lifetime.

FACULTY

Reading and Writing is Their Game!

Pictured above, Miss Peeper and Mr. Buchanan struggle through yet another pile of 10th grade composition books. They, along with Mrs. Mackey and Mr. Johnston, selected new books for next year. Pictured at right, Mrs. Pritchard relaxes for a moment from her busy schedule in the reading center. On the far page (top) Mrs. Mackey smiles, surprised to find the photographer in her American Lit. class. (Below), Mr. Contini can't decide whether he's teaching Business English or coaching baseball. Mr. Johnston was too busy trying to find the SWIRL photographers to be photographed.

Neil Buchanan — English 9, English 10, Modern Novel.

David Contini — Speech, Business English, Mass Media, Myths and Legends, Am. Lit. 11.

Below: Mrs. Rini is busy filling Mr. May's shoes, which in fact, she does very well.

Ray Johnston — English 10, English Lit., Advanced Writing, Yearbook.

Bonnie Mackey — English 9, American Lit.

Barbara Peeper — English 10, Advanced Language, Creative Writing.

Ruth Pritchard — 9th Grade Reading, Advanced Reading.

Alice Rini — Speech, Drama Coach.

SCIENCE FRICTION!

To the right see the Advanced Chemistry lab emitting a strange glow on that fateful day of the maleic anhydride disaster. Fortunately, no one was "seriously" injured and the brave students returned to the lab and successfully completed the experiment. Surprisingly, the intense investigation that followed turned up no clues to explain the violent "bumping." As Dr. C. L. Schrader would say, "We don't know and we can't find out."

Howard "Sparky" Lorson

Dr. C. L. Schrader

Above we find Doc Schrader standing outside of his private Laboratory. The photographer had to go through much pain and mental anguish to get such a rare picture since few people "no" the location of his secret abode. Right, Paul?

To the left is Advanced "Chemer" Dave Huff showing off the latest thing in safety fashions, designer goggles.

Science Teachers:

Mr. Ferbrache, Biology & Physical Science

Mr. Lorson, Physics & Physical Science

Mr. Martin, Biology

Mrs. Sanders, Advanced Chemistry, Physical Science

Dr. Schrader, Chemistry, Science for Modern Living

History, Social Studies, Geography, Etc.

Pictured above are history teachers in the library celebrating trivia week: Mr. Mowrey, geography & sociology; Mr. Henry, Am. history & Government; Mr. Nixon, Am. government, Russian history, economics; Mr. Zurowski, European history, Am. government, sociology; Mr. Swinderman, European history, Am. government and government seminar; Mr. Marks, Am. history and football. At right, Mr. Swinderman's seminar class takes over the State House chamber during their trip to see Gov. Celest inaugurated. They were invited by new State Tax Commissioner Joan Limbach, a former D.H.S. history teacher.

At left, Mr. Henry's class works on a mural showing a map of Dover and historic sites and people. Such murals decorate several rooms and the main hall. Below, Mr. Mowrey points to Siberia and smiles hopefully at a tenth grade geography class.

Tutors and EMR Teacher

Susan Johnson and Lynn Foust were the cheerful tutors who helped many with tough assignments in Room 101 with the bright red carpet. Here, they inspire John McCullough. Above, Mr. Strickmaker divided his attention between E.M.R. students and coaching.

Computers Are "In" — Both Business . . .

As technology moves forward in the business community, the DHS Business Department strives to update its equipment and courses to continue to offer relevant education. Therefore, two Commodore Computers, primarily for word processing, were added to the department this year. These are used in Office Machines and Typing II, but other business classes have been aware of their presence.

The Rosalia Greco Caputo Memorial Scholarship was presented this year to Karen Mizer and Lisa Schwartz. Established this year by Dr. Frank Caputo, a former social studies teacher at Dover High School, and his daughter, Bonita, this will be an annual award to a Dover business student who plans to major in business in college. Right, Mrs. Schupach who teaches typing, shorthand, office Practice, and Business Machines, shows Liz DelRe how to operate the new computer.

Miss Haidnick, Typing and Business, holds conference with a parent.

Mrs. Boich, Accounting and Typing, is startled at Rod Sherrell's figures.

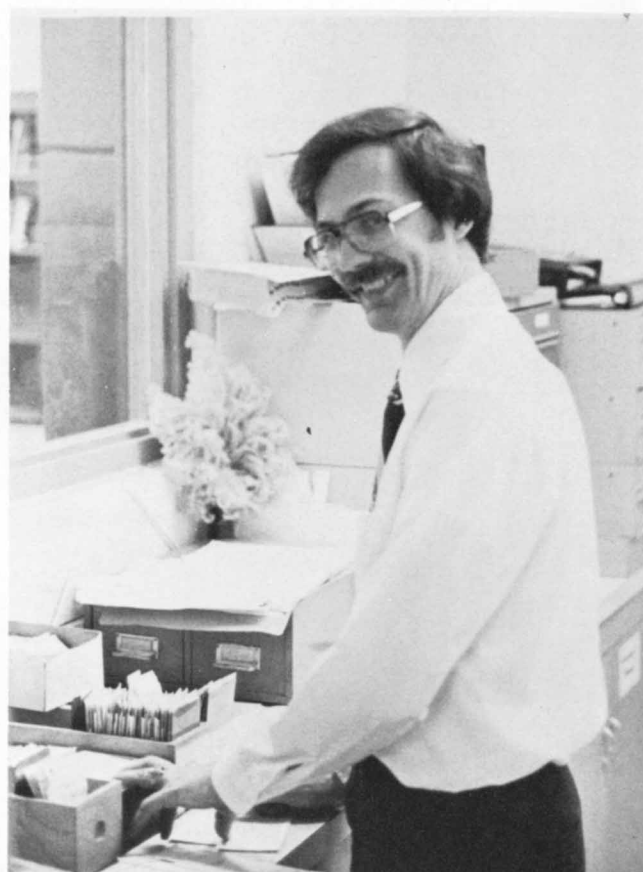

and Math are "Computerized"

The math department also got into the computer field this year. The computer programming course, taught by Mr. Eklund, was fun as Eklund and Darryl Hershberger illustrate. College Prep Math and Calculus attracted the college bound while Math for Personal Management appealed to the practical minded. Teachers included Mr. Eklund (left), Advanced Math, Geometry, and Computer Programming; Mr. Andreas (pictured with Mr. Frye, below, left) Algebra II, College Prep Math, and Calculus; Mr. Koval (below), Practical Math, Math for Personal Management, Algebra I, and Business Math; Mrs. Reese (below), Algebra I, Basic Math, and Geometry.

Foreign Language ...

Dover High's language department offers three languages; French, German, Spanish. This year we had 43 students enrolled in French; 44 in German; 129 in Spanish.

Picture Perfect!!!

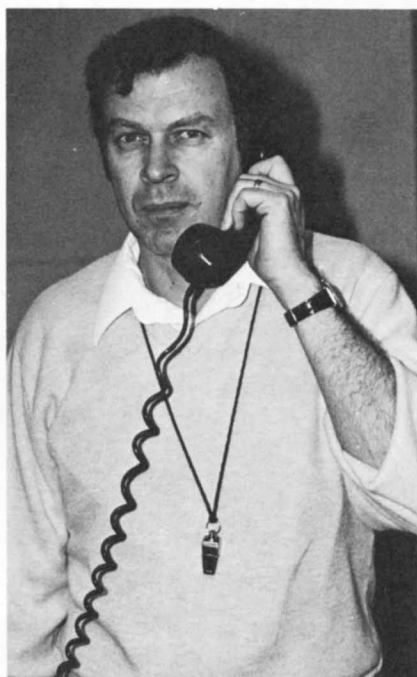

Of course, Once Again Our Art Students led by Miss Kennedy and Mr. Browning, did an outstanding job in the Governor's show, as well as all the others.

The People That Keep Our Bodies in Shape

At top left, Miss Vasbinder, the most popular phys-ed teacher sits at the head of the class. Next, Mr. Meese, the second most popular phys-ed teacher, tries the phone. Last at the top, Miss Thomas, health teacher, remains popular in spite of her extra duty: keeping after-school detention! How can such a nice lady have a job like that? At right, the very popular James Heller, athletic director and ticket-seller extra-ordinaire, mumbles "m m m" sounds (for money). At bottom, a gym class relaxes and counts the ceiling blocks.

Industrial

Artists

Steven Harmon, Graphics & Metal Shop

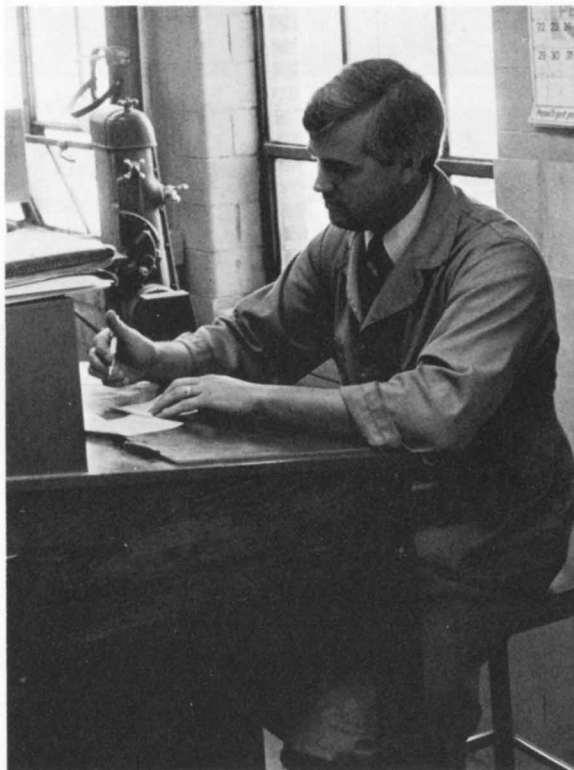

Allen Ickes, Drafting & Crafts

David Johnson, Wood-working, Photography, & Home Mechanics

Steven Harmon
Died March 20, 1983

His vocation was industrial arts, but his life was joy. He made many days bright.

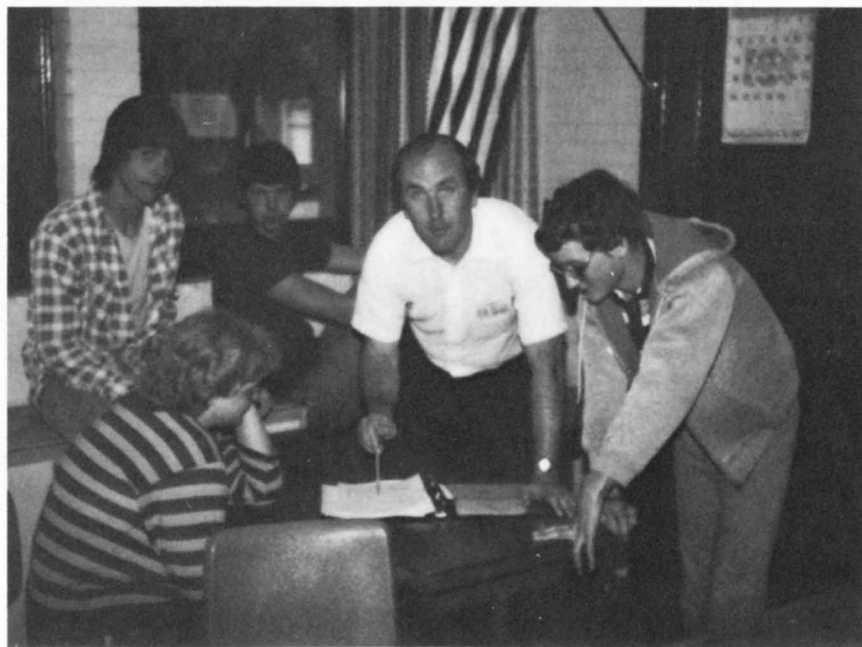

At the top, Mr. Ickes appears with his "super-draftsman," Matt Stevanus. Those two are sure to get the job done. Above, Mr. Johnson takes attendance prior to another exciting class of photography. Is it true that some never returned from the darkroom?

Choir and Band Directors

At the left, Mr. Hall, the choir director, tunes up the tenors, and below, Mr. Goudy and Mr. Gillaspie, band and orchestra directors, watch the band intently. Mr. Lyons was responsible for the Jazz Band, but no picture was available. He appears on p. 108.

O.W.E.

When Mr. Roseberry isn't coaching basketball, he's coaching O.W.E. Here he checks job assignments with Gerrilynne Jackson, Ken Kollar, Don German, and Rod Miller.

"The Guiding Lights" of DHS

The guidance office once again offered free advice to all people who wanted or needed it. They concentrated on the individual and helped to "guide" us into making good career decisions. This year they were helped by Mrs. Celce, their new secretary. Mr. Frye and Miss Canfield were also busy helping the students register for the ACT test that was given periodically throughout the year. Bottom left, Mr. Beeble helps a student plan for her future.

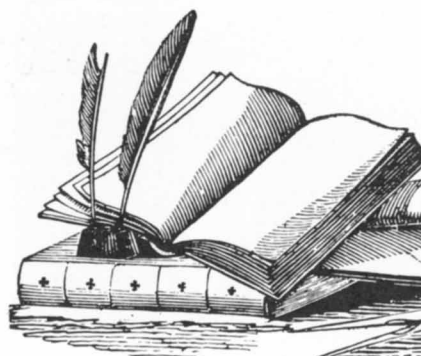

Miss Dean, D.H.S. Librarian, prepares one of her famous bulletin boards.

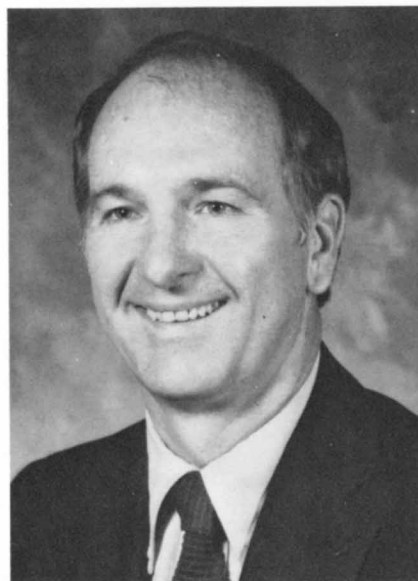

Life In The Library

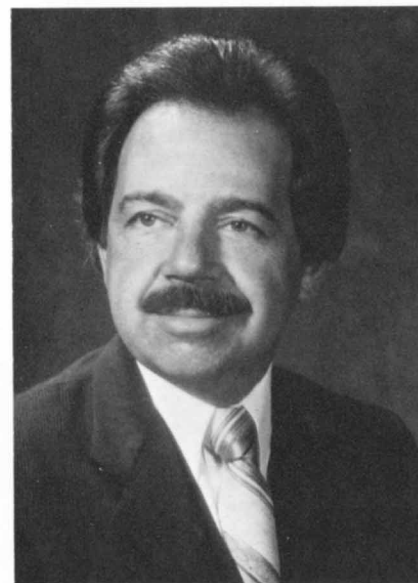

The library provided us with reading materials, references for class projects, and an escape from our study halls. This year, however, the library was not always so "quiet". Mini-courses were offered and held in the library, offering students information and new interests. Bottom right, Miss Dean shows us some of the old dance steps from the 50's during one minicourse.

Running a High School

Mr. Larence Baker
High School Principal

Mr. Frederick Delphia
Vice-Principal

Dover High School is fortunate to have versatile, dedicated leadership. Mr. Baker illustrates here that being principal requires many talents. He Mr. Delphia, Superintendent Hamsher, and all the other administrators and the board of education take much time from their private lives to make D.H.S. an outstanding school. The community owes them much.

Requires Much Dedication

The DHS-Team

This Year seemed to run as smoothly as ever, largely due to the success of our secretaries which include, at right: Mrs. Mallernee, Mrs. Davis, and Mrs. Petricola; bottom: Mrs. Graef, and bottom right: Mrs. Cook, and Mrs. Barr. The students would like to thank all of the secretaries for their efforts. (For a picture of Mrs. Celce, see page 182.)

The “A” & “B” TEAMS

The Dependable Crew

After the years of school turn to a blur, whose faces come back easily to haunt every ex-student? Why those dependable bus drivers, of course! They got everyone to school every day (or almost everyone and almost every day). Here pictured are the D.H.S. bus drivers: Row 1 — Rosa Hoover, Martha Engel, Susan Limbacher, Walter Maurer, Millie Sayre. Row 2 — Bessie Fensler, Ruth Shrock, Bob Morris, Austin Leggett, and Opal Leggett.

GRADUATION

Rain Couldn't Dampen Spirits . . .

But it did force the 105th graduation ceremony into the gym where everything went without a hitch. President Lew Clark (middle, right) welcomed guests, and valedictorians Scott Kellicker, Susan Stofan, and Bobbi Jo Feutz (bottom) urged their classmates to move toward a better tomorrow. Salutatorian Joan Wherley (below, center) thanked parents for their efforts. Mr. Baker presented the class, and Mr. Maybaugh, President of the Board, gave out the diplomas. Each "grad" turned his tassel and received a white antherium, that unusual class flower, as he left the stage. Mr. Hamsher congratulated the class and the benediction was provided by Rev. Arthur Sperry. The concert band performed spiritedly from the balcony. The gym was filled with relatives and friends. It was a really great occasion.

A special thanks goes to Bob Lauriha for professional photography; to the TIMES Reporter for sports action pictures, and to Mrs. Cook for taking care of the SWIRL business. Thanks also to the many local businesses who sponsored pages.

The SWIRL must also thank the teachers and administrators who put up with our photographers (pictured at right) and the interruptions that we occasionally caused. We hope it was worth it.
